

Composing in Latin

Fill in the Case Endings in the boxes, and then compose some Latin sentence. You may ONLY use words below for the main subject and verb. – But you can find use little words (like adverbs and adjs.) from the vocabulary lists you've studied.

Case Names & Their Use

- Nominative - Subject or predicate nominative
Genitive –Say: “of the...” The Possessive case in English
Dative – Say: TO / FOR whom? The Indirect Object in English
Accusative – Direct Obj. [or, with prepositions, such as trans and ad]
Ablative –This is the "by-with-from" case and with preps like ab, cum, de... etc.

NOUNS

- |                           |                           |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|
| brother – frater, fratris | sister – soror, sororis   |
| house – casa, -ae         | table – mensa, -ae        |
| mother - mater, matris    | father – pater, patris    |
| monstrum, -i – monster    | oppidum, i – town         |
| gift – donum, -i          | telum, i – weapon, dagger |

VERBS:

- pono, ponere, posui, positum – to put, place
moneo, monere, monui, monitum – to warn servo, servare, servavi, servatum, – to save/guard cogito, cogitare, cogitavi, cogitatum – to think/consider iuvo, iuvare, iuvi, iutum – to help

Compose five Latin sentences below and then write their English translation.

1. _____
 _____
2. _____
 _____
3. _____
 _____
4. _____
 _____
5. _____
 _____

CASE ENDINGS

1st Declension Feminine:

2nd Declension Masculine

2nd Declension Neuter

3rd Declension M/F:

(When you finish, double-check sentences to make sure endings are correct!)